RELEASE DATE:

Frankfurt am Main, Germany / November 25, 2025

- allnex to exhibit at China Coat 2025 taking place at the Shanghai New International Expo Centre in Pudong from November 25–27, 2025
- Technical seminars will provide a deep dive into allnex' applications and innovative solutions

Under the theme “Sustainable Reimagined Coatings for a Lower Carbon Future,” allnex will exhibit at Hall W1, Booth F13, demonstrating its latest technologies designed to accelerate the coatings industry's green transition, pioneering solutions that seamlessly integrate superior performance with environmental responsibility.

One of the key highlights of allnex's participation will be a series of 17 technical seminars hosted at the booth. These sessions will offer deep dives into cutting-edge applications and sustainable innovations, including:

- Green Self-Crosslinking Acrylics (SCA) for automotive coatings
- Low-odor and Low-migration UV solutions
- High Biobased Polyurethane Dispersions (PUDs)
- The integration of recycled PET (rPET) technologies

Visitors can explore a comprehensive portfolio of eco-friendly innovations tailored for key markets:

- Housing & Industrial Wood: Advanced solutions for wood panels, packaging, inks, and 3C applications.
- Mobility & Transportation: High-performance materials for automotive parts, e-bikes, and related sectors, featuring Green SCA technologies.
- Sustainable Solutions & Recycling: Breakthrough products supporting renewable energy systems, including coatings for solar panels and wind turbines.
- Additives Portfolio: A broad range of additives engineered to enhance both
