QUALITY POLICY

At allnex, we see innovation as our most powerful driver for improving the future for all nex>t generations. We prioritize innovation in chemistry, delivering high-quality, sustainable solutions that meet our customers' evolving expectations.

We are dedicated to quality with a right first-time approach by:

- Deeply understanding our customers' needs
- Effectively addressing internal and customers' issues
- Challenging the status quo on quality performance every day

We drive quality and efficiency across our organization through transparency and cross-functional teamwork. "Caring for Quality" is integrated in everything we do – it's how we do business.
